

Texas Revolution

What is the Texas Revolution? The Texas Revolution was the military conflict between the Mexican government and the settlers in Texas (also known as Texians).

When did the Texas Revolution begin and end? The Texas Revolution began on October 2, 1835, and ended on April 21, 1836.

What caused the Texas Revolution? The Texians were not following Mexican laws and the leaders of Mexico were afraid that the Texians would try to separate Texas from Mexico, so Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna, who was the Mexican president at the time, sent Mexican troops to Texas to fight the Texians and gain control.

Who won the Texas Revolution? Texan Army

What happened to Texas after the Texas Revolution? Texas was declared an independent country and was called The Republic of Texas and later became part of the United States as the 28th state.