

Albania

When did Albania become a country and who did they gain their independence from? Albania became a country in 1912 and gained their independence from the Ottoman Empire.

Where is Albania located? Albania is located in the southeastern part of Europe, bordering the Adriatic Sea and Ionian Sea.

What is the climate of Albania? The climate is mild temperate; cool, cloudy, and wet during the winter and hot, clear, and dry in the summer.

What is the terrain like in Albania?

Albania has mostly mountains and hills with small plains along the coast.

